The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) will be available to assist taxpayers with tax problems they've been unable to resolve on their own with the IRS. Our goal is to provide personalized, step by step guidance. If your tax problem meets our criteria, we'll assign a Case Advocate to work directly with you.

Georgia State University College of Law's Philip C. Cook Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic and the IRS chief counsel's Atlanta office representatives are available to resolve cases for unrepresented taxpayers who have imminent court dates at Tax Court. TAS employees will be available during the event to assist with any questions or concerns you may have regarding IRS issues. Contact the clinic at 404-413-9230 for an appointment.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service. TAS helps taxpayers resolve tax problems, recommends changes to prevent future tax problems, and protects taxpayer rights. TAS's services are free to taxpayers who are:

- Experiencing a financial hardship or having financial difficulties because of a tax problem;
- Trying, but haven't been able to resolve an IRS tax problem; or
- Believing an IRS system or procedure isn't working.
