

Have a tax problem you haven't been able to resolve with the IRS? The Taxpayer Advocate Service will assist taxpayers in person at its upcoming

Problem Solving Day

- What: Taxpayer Advocate Service Problem Solving Day
- Where: Municipal Complex, 901 Holly Street, McGehee, AR
- When: Tuesday, September 11, 2018 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM
- Partner: UA Little Rock, Bowen School of Law Low Income Tax Clinic
- What to bring: Picture ID, such as a driver's license and any documents you wish to discuss, such as your tax return or IRS notice.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) and the Bowen School of Law Tax Clinic will be available to assist taxpayers with tax problems they've been unable to resolve on their own with the IRS. Our goal is to provide personalized, step by step guidance. If your tax problem meets our criteria, we'll assign a Case Advocate to work directly with you.

TAS's Problem Solving Day event will be held at the Municipal Complex at 901 Holly Street in McGehee on September 11, 2018, from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM. TAS employees from the Little Rock office and the Director of the UA Little Rock's Bowen School of Law Tax Clinic will be available to assist taxpayers.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service. TAS helps taxpayers resolve tax problems, recommends changes to prevent future tax problems, and protects taxpayer rights. TAS's services are free to taxpayers who are:

- Experiencing a financial hardship or having financial difficulties because of a tax problem;
- Trying, but haven't been able to resolve an IRS tax problem; or
- Believing an IRS system or procedure isn't working.
