

Have a tax problem you haven't been able to resolve with the IRS? The Taxpayer Advocate Service will assist practitioners in person at its upcoming

Problem Solving Day

What: Taxpayer Advocate Service Problem Solving Day
Where: Gateway 5: 178 S Rio Grande St, SLC, UT 84101
When: Thursday, September 13th, 2018 from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Partners: University of Utah, Westminster College, Salt Lake Community College, LDS Business College, University of Phoenix, Utah College Applied Technology

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) will be available to assist practitioners with clients' tax problems they've been unable to resolve with the IRS. Our goal is to provide personalized, step by step guidance and case building ideas specific to your clients' tax matter. If your clients' tax problem meets our criteria, we'll assign a Case Advocate to work directly with you.

Salt Lake City TAS employees will be available to discuss federal tax issues at Gateway 5 on September 13, 2018 from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm. Please bring all pertinent information regarding your tax issue and assistance needed such as requests for transcripts or your need for expedited tax return processing for Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) purposes. You don't need an appointment. Note: TAS employees can't accept any payments or process tax returns.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service. TAS helps taxpayers resolve tax problems, recommends changes to prevent future tax problems, and protects taxpayer rights. TAS's services are free to taxpayers who are:

- Experiencing a financial hardship or having financial difficulties because of a tax problem;
- Trying, but haven't been able to resolve an IRS tax problem; or
- Believing an IRS system or procedure isn't working.
