

Have a tax problem you haven't been able to resolve with the IRS? The Taxpayer Advocate Service will assist practitioners in person at its upcoming
Problem Solving Day

- What: Taxpayer Advocate Service Problem Solving Day Event during the IRS Practitioner's Liaison Meeting
- Where: James McClure Federal Building
3rd floor, Room 384
550 W. Fort St
Boise, Idaho
- When: Wednesday, October 16, 2019 from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) will be available to assist taxpayers with tax problems they've been unable to resolve on their own with the IRS. Our goal is to provide personalized, step by step guidance. If your tax problem meets our criteria, we'll assign a Case Advocate to work directly with you.

TAS's Problem Solving Day event will be held on the third floor in Room 384 of the James McClure Federal Building on October 16, 2019 from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm.

Please bring all important information regarding your tax issue such as IRS notices, copy of your tax return(s), etc. Representatives will need to have a valid Power of Attorney (POA) on file with the IRS or can bring their client's signed Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative or Form 8821, Tax Information Authorization. TAS may still be able to assist with general information or questions if a valid POA is not on file or presented. NOTE: TAS employees cannot accept or process tax returns or payments.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service. TAS helps taxpayers resolve tax problems, recommends changes to prevent future tax problems, and protects taxpayer rights. TAS's services are free to taxpayers who are:

- Experiencing a financial hardship or having financial difficulties because of a tax problem;
- Trying, but haven't been able to resolve an IRS tax problem; or
- Believing an IRS system or procedure isn't working.
