Have a tax problem you haven’t been able to resolve with the IRS? The Taxpayer Advocate Service will assist practitioners in person at its upcoming Problem Solving Day

What: TAS Problem Solving Days at the Kansas State University Income Tax Institute
Where: Sedgwick County Extension Office, 7001 W. 21st Street N., Wichita, KS
When: November 13, 2018, 8:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
Partners: Kansas Income Tax Institute

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) will be available to assist practitioners with clients’ tax problems they’ve been unable to resolve with the IRS. Our goal is to provide personalized, step by step guidance and case building ideas specific to your clients’ tax matter. If your clients’ tax problem meets our criteria, we’ll assign a Case Advocate to work directly with you to resolve your client’s tax issue.

TAS’s Problem Solving Day event will be held at the Sedgwick County Extension Office on November 13, 2018, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Traci Wilnerd, the Kansas Local Taxpayer Advocate, will be onsite with TAS employees to meet with practitioners from 8:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. No appointments are necessary.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service. TAS helps taxpayers resolve tax problems, recommends changes to prevent future tax problems, and protects taxpayer rights. TAS’s services are free to taxpayers who are:

• Experiencing a financial hardship or having financial difficulties because of a tax problem;
• Trying, but haven’t been able to resolve an IRS tax problem; or
• Believing an IRS system or procedure isn’t working.
