Our goal is to provide personalized, step by step guidance. If your tax problem meets our criteria, we'll assign a Case Advocate to work directly with you.

TAS's Problem Solving Day event will be held at the Chatham University Eastside Campus on Friday, November 16, 2018 from 10:00am – 1:00pm.

Chatham University is coordinating with the American Bar Association, the Taxpayer Advocate Service, and the University of Pittsburgh School of Law Low Income Taxpayer Clinic and Elder Law Clinic to host a Senior Tax and Services Day. Individual consultations and formal presentations on numerous topics will be provided, such as: owing money to the IRS, receiving a letter about your tax return, identity theft concerns, healthcare Power of Attorneys, and much more. No appointment is necessary!

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service. TAS helps taxpayers resolve tax problems, recommends changes to prevent future tax problems, and protects taxpayer rights. TAS's services are free to taxpayers who are:

- Experiencing a financial hardship or having financial difficulties because of a tax problem;
- Trying, but haven't been able to resolve an IRS tax problem; or
- Believing an IRS system or procedure isn't working.
