

Have a tax problem you haven't been able to resolve with the IRS? The Taxpayer Advocate Service will assist practitioners in person at its upcoming

Problem Solving Day

What: Utah Fall Practitioner Seminar
Where: University of Utah, S.J. Quinney College of Law, 6th floor Auditorium,
383 S University St., SLC, UT 84112
When: November 20, 2018; 7:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Partners: Utah Practitioner Liaison & U of U College of Law LITC

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) will be available to assist practitioners with clients' tax problems they've been unable to resolve with the IRS. Our goal is to provide personalized, step by step guidance and case building ideas specific to your clients' tax matter. If your clients' tax problem meets our criteria, we'll assign a Case Advocate to work directly with you.

Salt Lake City TAS will be available to discuss federal tax issues at S.J. Quinney College of Law on November 20, 2018. The Seminar will begin at 9:00 a.m. but TAS will arrive prior to the event at 7:30 a.m. and stay till 1:00 p.m. to assist those with tax issues. Please bring all pertinent information regarding your tax issue such as IRS notices, copy of returns, etc. No appointment necessary. Note: TAS employees can't accept any payments or process tax returns.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service. TAS helps taxpayers resolve tax problems, recommends changes to prevent future tax problems, and protects taxpayer rights. TAS's services are free to taxpayers who are:

- Experiencing a financial hardship or having financial difficulties because of a tax problem;
- Trying, but haven't been able to resolve an IRS tax problem; or
- Believing an IRS system or procedure isn't working.
